CIRCLE OF GENRES

MANY GENRES CAN INSPIRE A FINAL ACADEMIC STATEMENT

made by the Writing Center at the Evergreen State College 2018-2020 explores existing literature on a research topic, citing it as evidence for a claim declares what you/your group stand(s) for and what you/your group believe(s) are your guiding principles RESEARCH/SYNTHESIS ESSAY explores the literature of your narrative evals, citing those as evidence for a claim introduction to your body of artwork; overview of your most valued ideas and how they show up in your artwork

MANIFESTO/A/X; MISSION STATEMENT > shows the influence of your beliefs and values on your academic story told through an academic or professional lens

ARTIST

introduces your body of academic work;
overview of your most valued ideas and how they show up in your academic work

INTRODUCTION

introduces a book  introduces the collection of narrative evaluations in your transcript

FINAL ACADEMIC STATEMENT

MEMOIR

shows the influence of who you are as a person on your academic story told through a professional or academic lens tells any part of your personal story through any lens

COVER

showcases skills and concrete accomplishments gained/used in your undergrad that can help you in many careers tells your academic story focusing on your undergrad up-till-now and how you are prepared for a variety of academic challenges

PERSONAL STATEMENT FOR
GRAD SCHOOL
APPLICATION

showcases your skills and concrete accomplishments and shows how you and your goals fit a targeted job tells your story through a personal and academic lens highlighting your strengths and aspirations

SCHOLARSHIP LETTER

tells your story through personal, academic, and financial contexts; highlights your strengths and aspirations, shaped to a particular donor and the way you will use funding from others to further your and the donor's shared values tells your academic story targeting one grad program and how you and your goals fit that program